Last night's session was occupied on the public education bill without result. The said bill passed to-day by a vote of 52 years to 3 nays. Judge J. W. Watron, by invitation, addressed the House this afternoon in advocacy of the bill fixing his fee in the Railroad Commission cases.

The bill passed the House allowing insurance companies not licensed by the State to transact business without making deposit or paying privilege tax, but by paying 4 per cent. of gross receipts. This bill, should it become receips. In Sil, should it become a law, will operate unjustly to those compages that have paid the privi-lege tax and made deposits, and will not benefit the citizens of the State at large. It will make the procurance of insurance on gin-houses and cotton risks more difficult.

The Legislature From an Independent Standpoints localispondence of the affral.

JACESON, Miss., March 1.—Another week has passed and the Mississippi Legislature is beginning to get down to its work, little important legislation having been completed. It will do better now. There is no other place to which an "excursion" can be run. Seats in the Mississippi Legislature will be at a premium now, since free rides and junketing seems to be the order of the day. It is a part of the franchise of the seat. But travel lib-eralizes the mind, enlarges the ideas, expands the understanding, and who will not say that the Mississippi Legis-lature does not need such tuition?

The House is a "jolly" set of fel-lows mostly, though there are some able men of reflective character and habits among them. Some of them are "demnition smart" fellows. The Senate is more dignified and orderly in its sense of legislative duties and responsibilities. The House has more "quidinuncs" than the Senate indeed, the latter has none at all, for in eccion, and no ripple upon the surface, it looks as wise as an owl with a dose of laudanum. It is mostly composed of able men and few demagognes. In the House the demagogue is in his glory—and finds much sympathy—and the "jay bird" of liberty is unmercifully ridden.

One of the most notable events of the week was the sudden blasing across the literary firmament of a genius which had hitherto been "blushing unseen" among the hills of Ponto oc county. He was by solemn resolution of the House recognized and crowned as poet laureate of the House, who has acquired more fame with less effort and less genius than any preceding post. "Poeta nasctur non fit."

The week has been crowded with the consideration of measures of great importance to the people of the State, and in many instances the legislator is wreatling with more profound matters than he can lathom. Statesmen are as much needed in State as in national legislation, but they are not found every time. The local option law for counties has been up for consideration, and, with some amendments, has passed the House. It was ably argued, pro and con.

The Yaz o Levee District revenue bill was considered in the Senate.

The ground for the difference of opinion lay in the cotton tax clause. The opposition to the tax was led by

THE EDUCATION BILL PASSED THE HOUSE,

though the matter was referred sgain to the Levee Committee. The cotton tax supporters were ably led by Senators Yerger, Sykes, Dillard, Powell, Houston and others. The cotton tax is supported by the majority of the property owners of the delta, and it is property owners of the delta, and it is opposed by the negroes unanimonaly, but it is the only basis of credit, and is the only salvation of the delta. There would to-day be no levees rebuilt in the delta unless based on a cotton tax

The Gulf and Ship Island railroad bill has been a hard nut for the legislators to crack. It seeks to transfer the State convicts to the said com-pany for a term of years for $75,000 of the company's tonds. There has been much discussion of the realist been much discussion of the matter, but it passed the House by a consider-able majority, and it is hoped will pass the Senate. The convicts should be placed upon the public works in the State, both railroad and levees. The proposed railroad will develop a large section of the State now untraversed by railroads, create and increase taxable values, and add much to the material advantage of the State. Faulkner, who controls the Ripley narrow-gauge road, in the northern part of the State, has put his road in the pool, and that insures success.

A vigorous effort was made by Mc-Gruder, member from Vicksburg, to abolish the State Railroad Cor sion, in an able speech, but the House would not follow him. He denounced the theory of the commission as a despotic espionage upon the rights of individuals and corporations. The Railroad Commission is safe for another term at least. Another matter of public concern before the House past week was the report of the special committee upon a charge of forgery against W. L. Lowe, a negro, and one of the members from Bolivar county. The resolution of expulsion upon the report of the committee find-ing the charge proven, was voted down, and the Heuse has thus set up a standard of public morality it will be hard to explain or justify.

Another natter of much interest in the early part of last week was the contested election case of Robert P. Duncan vs. W. L. Lowe, from Bolivar county. The contestant contended that the violation of the election laws, as shown over the entire country by the Republican fasion ticket, manifested a fraudulent intent, which overcame the prima facie presumption in favor of the certificate and shifted the burden of proof upon the contestee to show his vote. H. C. McCabe, member from Warren county, ably opposed for the contextee that such irregularities would not vitiate an election and there was no fraud. The contestant was permitted, by the courtesy of the House, to present his own case, and it was a grand effort. For several hours—during part of the morning and night sessions of Tuesday—in an argument of unsurpassed power and elequence, the contestant commanded the universal attention of the House. It was pronounced a masterly effort, one of the best ever made in the hall of the House of Representatives, and the warm congratulations extended a:tested the appreciation of his audience. But even such an argument on the law and the facts could not induce a ma-

Congress in the House.

The latter part of the week was particularly lively on the outside of the capitol. It seems that Maj. Frank Burkett of Chickasaw county, member of the House, had said in his

The Committee on Commerce have recommended the passage of the measure giving the assent of Congress paper, the Chickasaw Messenger, that if certain facts brought out by the Senate Committee on the Penitentiary affected an opposition Governor he would be imprached, and that the present House had not the moral courage to impeach Gov. Lowry. On Saturday, as Burkett was leaving the House, Pat Lowry, son of and private secretary to the Governor, denounced Burkett as a liar, etc., whereupon he was violently assaulted by Burkett, when they were separated. In the afternoon Robert Lowry, jr., posted Burkett as a liar and coward, etc., and informed him that he was "ready, willing and awaiting" to defend his poster. The young men were bound over to keep the peace, and so the matter ended, and it is hoped will stay ended. Gov. Lowry heretofore has borne a fine character, and the proof will have to be strong of any corruption on his part to command belief. It is commendable, of course, for his sons to wish to resent an in-sult offered their father, but he is a subject to criticism. More anon. TENNESSEE.

A Word to Workers,

If your avocations are montally or physically laborious, if they subject you to exposure in inclement weather, if they confine you to the desa, and are of a nature to involve wear and tear of brain and nervous strain, you may occasionally require some renovating tonic. Hostetter's Stomenh Bitters is trearticle for you; it atimulates the failing easiers, invigorates the body and cheers the mind. It enables the system to throw off the dealilitating effects of undustatings, rever renewed vigor to the organs of digestion, arouse the liver when innative, which it very often is with people whose pursuits are sedentary, renews the jaded appetite, and encourages healthful spone. Its ingredients are sale, and its credentials, which consist in the hearry inderesment of persons of every class of receiving, are mot convincing. Admirably is it adapted to the medical wants of workers. A Word to Workers,

CORRESPONDENCE OF THE APPRAL. WASHINGTON, March 2 .- The Committee on Appropriations have com-pleted the examination of the estimates of appropriations presented by the Secretary of the Treasury as necessary for the public service during the coming fiscal year, beginning on the 1st day of July, and will now enter earnestly upon the work of formulating the appropriation bills. As money allowances, I give those which are of local interest.

Salaries and expenses of collecting the internal revenue in Tennessee: Second District, $16,000; Fifth Disrict, $27,500; total, $43,500. Mississippi, $16,000; Arkansas, $13,500.

In addition to this it is desired that $50,000 be allowed for a postoffice building at the Hot Springs, Ark., and an effort is to be made to in-crease the limitation of cost for the Chattancoga building to $250,000. The following are the estimates for river improvements in the state now being considered by the Committee on Rivers and Harbors. Big Hatchie river, $11,000; Caney Fork, $13,200; Clinch, $15,000; Cumberland, $450,000; Duck, $10,000; French Broad, $25,000; Hiawassee, $5000; Little Tennessee, $15,000; south fork Deer river, $5000; Tennesse, $583,000; south fork Deer river, $5000; Camberland $580,000; south fork of Camberland, $10,000. Mississippi: Warrior and Tombig-bee, $152,000; Big Sunflower, $15,000; Nozubee, $25,000; Old Town Creek, $7000; Pa cagonia, $7000; Pearl, $90,-000; Steel'a Bayon, $5000; Talla-batchie, $10,000; Tchula Lake, $5000;

Yalobusha, $5000; Yazoo, $30,000. Arkansas: Black, $10,000; Ouachita, $40,000; Arkansas river at Pine Bluff, $8000; St. Francis, $8000; Arkansas, $50,000.

The following amounts are required for the care and preservation of public buildings: Memphis Custom-House, $3060; Jackson Court House, $1260; Jackson, Miss., Court-House, $1260; Knoxyille Court-House, $2460; Little Rock Court-House, $2010; Nashville Court-House, $2505. A supplemental report from the Secretary of War relative to obstructions to navigation in Tennessee rivers caused by bridges, says:

"An accident at the Clarksville bridge, on the Cumberland river, has moved the pilo's and others interested in the navigation of that river to demand that the space between the draw-piers be filled in by a solid wall, so that boats may rub against it without damage, and that a pole thirty to fifty feet high, bearing a red flag by day and a red lautern by night, so that pilots may see at a reasonable dis-tance whether the draw is open, be erected upon the draw span. This re-quest seems reasonable, and as the quest seems reasonable, and as the cost to the company would not be very great, I would respectfully recommend that it be ordered. It may be that cribs of timbers filled with stone would answer as well as solid stone masonry, and the cost need not exceed $6000."

The Committee on Commerce have to the construction of a bridge by the Nashvi le, Jackson and Memphis Railroad Company over the Tennessee rivor, at a point in the counties of Perry and Decatur where it is most practicable. The committee changed the measure as originally prepared by Mr. Taylor. At first it was intende to authorize a bridge with spans of 164 feet length and 34 feet above extreme high water mark, but the committee, in view of the possibilities of future commerce, were unwilling to prescribe these limits, or to definitely fix them, so they provide that the spans "shall be of such width and hight above the water as may be prescribed by the Secretary of War," thus leaving the determination of this important matter with the army engineers in charge of the river improve-

The wonderful rapidity with which official "bureaus" grow intexpense to the government has received its latest exemplification in the case of the Bureau of Labor, now little more than a year old. The amount asked for the payment of salaries during the next fiscal year is $52,980, which pre sents a startling contrast to the amount allowed for the coming fiscal year-$5000. Then, too, there is asked for contingent expenses $39,850. For the present year there was allowed for "contingencies" $35,000, but, it should be explained, out of this came the sal ary account and expenses of special agents, which it is now desired to specifically appropriate, as indicated above. The result, as can be seen from these figures, is that the expense of a "bureau" which commenced at $40,000 per annum has grown in a twelvementh to $92,830. This is instructive, if we think for a moment of other "bureaus," the Fish Commission, for example, which began at a cost of $20,000 a year and now reaches well up in the hundred- of thousands. The present Committee on Claims are making a reputation in the determination of such matters which bids fair to exceed its predecessors, even that of the most radical era when the now ou ted party used as its most potent auxiliary the denun-ciation of "rebel" war claims. Let me give an example. A Mississippi man, and this is only an illustration of many decisions of the committee petitioned for payment for goods taken by the United States army, but he failed to make application to the War Department for a settlement prior to March 3, 1879. The committee say, through the chairman, Judge Geddes, that "no explanation is given for the negligence of the party in not seeking payment sconer. He may have been advised that it could not be allowed under the act of July 4, 1868, for the property was taken during the war, in a state in insurrection. Manifestly it would be dangerous to give the least encouragement to claims of this clars."

Why it would be "dangerous" for the government to pay a claim if it is bonest does not appear, but it might as well be understood that Southern claims have received not "the least encouragement" from the committee of the present House charged with their examination.

The engineer in charge reports to opinion lav in the cotton tax clause. Emuision and used it in my family Congress that the Pascagonia river, and am greatly pleased with it. Have found it very serviceable in Scrofulous ment, as the commerce to be benefited in lease and Pulmonary affections."

would follow the completion of the improvement. Its cost would be $78,100.

AEPITHE LIOM! OR SKIN CANCER.

For seven years I suffered with a cancer on my face. All the simple remedies were applied to allieviate the pain, but the place centinued to grow, finally extending into my nose, from which came a yellowish discharge, very offensive in character. It was also inflamed, and amoyed me a great deal. About eight months sgo! was in Atlanta, at the house of a friend, who so strongly recommended the use of Swi t's Specific that I determined to make an effort to procure it. In this I was successful, and began its me. The influence of the medicine at first was to somewhat assravate the sore: but roon the inflammation was allayed, and I began to improve after the first few bottles. My general health has greatly improved. I am stronger, and able to do any kind of work. The cancer on my face began to decrease and the ulcer to heal, until there is not a vestice of it left—only a lit le s ar marks the place where it had been. I am ready to answer all questions relative to this cure.

MRS, JOICE A. McDONALD.

Atlanta, Gn., August 11, 1855.

I have had a cancer on my face for some years, extending from one cheek bone across the nose to the other. It has given me a great deal of pain, at times burning and itching to such an extent that it was almost unbearable. I commenced uning Swift's Specific in May, 1885, and have used eight bottlee. It has given the greatest relief by removing the inflammation and restories my general health.

Knoxville, Iowa, Sept. 8, 1885.

For many years I was a sufferer with cancer of the nose, and having been cured by the use of S. S. S. I feel constrained by a serie of duty to suffering humanity to make this statement of my case. With the four-teenth bottle the cancer began to heal rapidly and soon disappeared, and for several months there has been no appearance of a sore of any kind on my nose or face, neither is my nose at all tender to the touch. I have taken about two dozen bottles of S. S. I am soundly cured, and I know that S. S. S. effected the cure after every known remedy was tried and had failed.

ROBERT SMEDLEY.

Fort Gaines, Ga., May 1, 1885.

I had heard of the wonderful cures of Switt's Specific, and resolved to try it. I commenced taking it in April, 1884 My general health was much improved, but the cancer which was in my breast continued to grow slowly but surely. The bunch grew and became quite heavy. I feit that I must either have it cuts rdie. But it commenced discharging quantities of almost black, thick blood. It continued healing around the edges until February, when it was entirely healed up and well.
